Dear Russ,

Thanks for your note and all your spadework for my 4 August visit. Naturally I'm sorry that I will just barely miss seeing you and wish you the very best as you move on to new adventures.

I was certainly delighted to have Bryant with us on that flight back to Europe. I know how proud you are of him and his brother both and it's wonderful they are following in your footsteps.

I will look forward to seeing you in Washington and perhaps asking your help or advice from time to time. In the meantime, again, many thanks and I do look forward to being at SAC on August 4th.

Yours,
